

US-Mongolia Field Research Fellowship Program 2010

Application Package

All applications from US students must include the following 6 pieces:

1. A cover sheet, which is available from the ACMS website or the ACMS offices in Mongolia or the US.
2. A curriculum vita (CV) that outlines the applicant's current address and academic standing, including institution, current level of studies, and information on past academic research and studies and relevant work experience.
3. Copies of all undergraduate and graduate college or university transcripts.
4. A personal statement of up to 500 words that explains the applicant's interest in participating in the program, background and experience with Mongolia or field research, and how the research experience supported by the program fits into a longer term interest in Mongolia and Mongolian Studies.
5. A research statement of up to 500 words that details the type of research to be conducted and its importance to Mongolia and fields of study related to Mongolia. Please also indicate the source and dollar value of any support you have applied for or been notified you will receive for your research work in Mongolia.
6. A letter of support from a Research Sponsor who has agreed to supervise the applicant's research project. The letter should describe the Research Sponsor's relationship to the applicant, and clearly indicate that the Research Sponsor is able to oversee the applicant's research project. Research Sponsors with questions about the program should contact the ACMS at email: info @ mongoliacenter.org or by phone or mail.

All application materials must be received by the ACMS by March 1, 2010. All application materials must be submitted in English.

Application materials may be submitted as email attachments to the email address: info @ mongoliacenter.org, or in person or by mail to the ACMS offices in Ulaanbaatar or Madison, WI at the addresses below. Please address any questions about the Program or application to this email address or offices.
