Please note that all users must register in order to better track the usage and efficacy of the modules.

New Publication*"Pages from the Past: The 1910 Moscow Trade Expedition to Mongolia"Translated and introduced by Elizabeth Endicott

"Pages from the Past: The 1910 Moscow Trade Expedition to Mongolia", translated from the Russian and introduced by Elizabeth Endicott, has been published by EastBridge Books. Traveling throughout northern and western Mongolia in the summer of 1910, the expedition members gathered a wealth of information on trade routes, trading centers, the perceived threat to Russian trade posed by Chinese mercantile competition, and the daily lives of the Mongols themselves. The Moscow Trade Expedition merchants' field diaries provide minutely detailed accounts of the Mongolian countryside, Buddhist ceremonies, and interactions with nomadic households. The book is accompanied by 33 black and white photographs taken by the 1910 Expedition. Elizabeth Endicott teaches East Asian and Central Eurasian history at Middlebury College. To order visit eastbridgebooks.org. ISBN 1-59988-002-4.
