This Month in Mongolian Studies - August 2006

A publication of the American Center for Mongolian Studies

This is a monthly compendium of important and interesting events taking place at the ACMS in Ulaanbaatar in Mongolian Studies and among the Mongol peoples of the world. This list is based on information our center has received and is presented as a service to ACMS members. If you would like to become a member, have information you would like to submit to future newsletters or have received this message in error, please contact the ACMS at info@mongoliacenter.org.

For more information on each entry, please see the "Announcements" section of the ACMS webpage.

News from the Center

This month will see the transition at the Center’s UB office of one Resident Director to another. It has been my distinct pleasure to serve the Center and its members as the founding RD and to build up and accomplish, along with our Deputy Director D. Enkhbaatar and all of our supporters and partners, all that we have in two short years. The new director, Brian White, will take over a healthy organization this month and will undoubtedly take it to new heights.

All members attending the Ninth International Congress of Mongolists in Ulaanbaatar are invited to attend the ACMS Reception to be held Thursday, August 10th, from 7-9pm at the Modern Art Gallery, located in the Central Palace of Culture, just south of the Tuushin Hotel.

And all members visiting from the States are invited to bring an academic book to donate to our Scholarly Library.

Conferences in August

Ninth International Congress of Mongolists, Ulaanbaatar, August 8-12, 2006

Almost 800 years have passed since the creation of the Great Mongolian State (Yeke Mongol Ulus). This is a great date in the history of the Mongolian people that will be celebrated widely across our nation in 2006. The Secretariat of the International Association for Mongolian Studies (IAMS) has decided to mark the 800-year anniversary of the Great Mongolian State by convening the Ninth International Congress of Mongolists. The Congress is sponsored by the International Association for Mongolian Studies and International Studies.
