NEW PUBLICATIONS
"Gobi Women's Song," Mongolian Documentary for Higher Education
Set against the background of barren expanses, "Gobi Women's Song" immerses the viewer in a different world. Five 21st century nomadic women share their lives over a four-year period. Their colorful and harsh lives are ultimately about connection—with the past, the environment, community, family, and ultimately, with us. The director, Sas Carey, is available to take this educational documentary on tour to colleges and She offers a lecture and screening and an opportunity to have her meet with classes on Women's Studies, Anthropology, Complementary Healing, Sustainable Living, Central Asian nomads, and/or Mongolia. To book a screening by e-mail: sas at lifenergyheal dot com.
