This Month in Mongolian Studies - June 2006

A publication of the American Center for Mongolian Studies

This is a monthly compendium of important and interesting events taking place at the ACMS in Ulaanbaatar in Mongolian Studies and among the Mongol peoples of the world. This list is based on information our center has received and is presented as a service to ACMS members. If you would like to become a member, have information you would like to submit to future newsletters or have received this message in error, please contact the ACMS at info at mongoliacenter.org.

For more information on each entry, please see the "Announcements" section of the ACMS webpage.

News from the Center

June marks the arrival to Mongolia of not only summer rains and green grasses but also many eager foreign students, educators and researchers. All members coming to Ulaanbaatar this summer are welcome to see us in our new offices at the National University of Mongolia. And we encourage all planning trips to Mongolia to bring along an academic book to donate to our blossoming ACMS Scholarly Library.

ACMS Announcements

ACMS Second Anniversary Celebration, June 8

All members and those interested in Mongolia and Mongolian Studies are cordially invited to the celebration of the Second Anniversary of the opening of the ACMS Ulaanbaatar office. The event will take place on June 8 at 5:00pm in the Round Lecture Hall of the National University of Mongolia. The keynote speech will be given by the United States Ambassador to Mongolia, the Honorable Pamela Slutz.

ACMS Speaker's Series for June

June 22: "Land Use and Resource Conservation: Finding the Balance," by Jayne Belnap

This lecture begins at 5:00 pm and will be held in the 'Round Lecture Hall' (second floor) National University of Mongolia, Building no. 1, downtown Ulaanbaatar. ACMS Speaker Series lectures are free and open to the public.

Job Opening, Resident Director, ACMS Ulaanbaatar Office

The American Center for Mongolian Studies is seeking a Resident Director for its Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia office. The ACMS Resident Director is responsible for the management of the ACMS Ulaanbaatar office, staff and programs, and the development of new programs, partners and funding sources. The position is primarily administrative, but requires an ability to work effectively with international and Mongolian academic institutions, scholars and students. Application screening will begin June 1, 2006, and will continue until a suitable candidate is identified. The position is available starting August 1, 2006. For more information on the ACMS, please visit our website: mongoliacenter.org or email: info @ mongoliacenter.org.
